

HOSPITAL CORSPMAN SICKCALL SCREENERS HANDBOOK
RESPIRATORY SYSTEM AND THE EYE

1. How many pairs of ribs are attached by the costal cartilage anteriorly?
 - A. 6
 - B. 8
 - C. 10
 - D. 12

2. The muscles of respiration are the intercostals muscles of the rib cage and what?
 - A. Diaphragm
 - B. Lungs
 - C. Mediastium
 - D. Right and Left Pleural Cavities

3. The left lung has how many lobes?
 - A. 1
 - B. 2
 - C. 3
 - D. 4

4. What is the name of the serous membrane layer that covers the lungs?
 - A. Parietal Pleura
 - B. Suprasternal Layer
 - C. Visceral Pleura
 - D. Intrapleural Space

5. When palpating the chest, you should have the patient repeat what words in order to determine levels of fremitus?
 - A. "Apple Pie"
 - B. "Ninety-Nine"
 - C. "Coffee"
 - D. "Swordfish"

6. What type of abnormal breath sounds are intermittent, non-musical, very brief sounds and sound like rubbing hair between your fingers?
 - A. Rhonci
 - B. Wheezes
 - C. Crackles
 - D. Fremitus

7. What type of abnormal breath sounds make a high-pitched musical sound caused by a relatively high velocity of airflow through a narrowed airway?
 - A. Rhonci
 - B. Wheezes
 - C. Crackles
 - D. Fremitus

8. What thin membrane covers most of the anterior eye and tie the inner surface of the eyelid in contact with the globe and protects the eye from foreign bodies and drying out?
 - A. Cornea
 - B. Iris
 - C. Lens
 - D. Conjunctiva

HOSPITAL CORSPMAN SICKCALL SCREENERS HANDBOOK
RESPIRATORY SYSTEM AND THE EYE

9. What part of the eye is a continuation of the sclera and can sense pain and also separates the aqueous humor of the anterior chamber from the external environment and transmits light through the lens to the retina?

- A. Retina
- B. Iris
- C. Cornea
- D. Lacrimal Gland

10. What is the name of the most common inflammation of the eyelids caused by seborrhea or bacteria and frequently associated with conjunctivitis?

- A. Blepharitis
- B. Hordeolum
- C. Chalazion
- D. Iritis